Does Turkey have a military presence in Northern Cyprus? The Turkish Army, with the support of Northern Cyprus's government, maintains a large force in Northern Cyprus, which the Republic of Cyprus, the EU, and the international community regard as an occupation force. This military presence is illegal under international law, and has been denounced in several UN Security Council resolutions. Where is Northern Cyprus located? Panoramic view of the Güzelyurt District, and Morphou Bay as seen from the Troodos mountains. Northern Cyprus has an area of 3,355 square kilometres (1,295 sq mi), which amounts to around a third of the island. 75 kilometres (40 nautical miles) to the north of Northern Cyprus lies Turkey with Syria lying 97 kilometres (52 1/2 nmi) to the east. Where is the Turkish peace force deployed in Cyprus? The Cyprus Turkish Peace Force is deployed principally along the Green Line and in locations where hostile amphibious landings might take place. The presence of the mainland Turkish military in Cyprus is highly controversial, having been denounced as an occupation force by the Republic of Cyprus and the international community. Is Northern Cyprus a Turkish state? Northern Cyprus, [a] officially the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC), [b] is a de facto state that comprises the northeastern portion of the island of Cyprus. It is recognised only by Turkey; the international community considers it territory of the Republic of Cyprus under Turkish military occupation. Why is Northern Cyprus not recognized as a state? The situation with the South African homelands was similar and so was collective non-acceptance of the Turkish puppet-government in northern Cyprus which has resulted in the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus not being recognized as a state. ^ Bartmann, Barry (). Why is Northern Cyprus under an international embargo? Northern Cyprus is under an international embargo as the Republic of Cyprus, as the internationally recognised authority, has declared airports and ports in the area not under its effective control closed. All UN member states other than Turkey respect the closure of those ports and airports.
